

ST. DAVID'S SCHOOL

Middle and Upper School Spanish Instructor

St. David's School in Raleigh, NC seeks an accomplished, collaborative educator to teach various levels of Middle and Upper School Spanish depending on the potential needs and assignments of the Modern Languages Department. The ability to teach French as well is preferred.

The ideal candidate will be a native or near-native Spanish speaker and a true educator with a minimum of three years teaching experience. A Master's degree is preferred, although not essential. A talented professional, the ideal candidate will both inspire students of various levels with a passion for the Spanish language and its diverse cultures as well as join and contribute positively to a dynamic Modern Languages Department.

The candidate will embrace fully the school's mission, philosophy, and traditions. Salary and benefits are competitive, classes are small, and the work environment is collegial. All candidates are encouraged to visit the St. David's School website, stdavidraleigh.org, to learn more about the mission and vision of the school and to download our Employment Application and Questionnaire.

Please submit application and supporting documentation electronically to our Human Resources department at Jobs@sds.org.
