

ST. DAVID'S SCHOOL

Interim Middle School Science Instructor

St. David's School is currently seeking an interim Middle School Science Instructor for the 2022-23 school year beginning in March 2023.

The ideal candidate will have at least two years of experience teaching middle school science classes, particularly in the field of physical science.

Candidates should inspire wonder in young men and women by encouraging them to examine the natural world. Instructors should be willing to use a variety of teaching methods and collaborate with others in the school in order to best meet the needs of all students. The candidate must fully embrace the school's mission, philosophy and traditions.

Salary is competitive, classes are small and the work environment is collegial. All candidates are encouraged to visit the St. David's School website at www.stdavidraleigh.org to learn more about the mission and vision of the school and to apply for the position on our Employment page.
