

Middle School Humanities Teacher

St. David's School seeks a dynamic and dedicated history teacher for our middle school division.

St. David's values a variety of instruction including inquiry-based learning, seminar-style discussions, and hands-on projects to meet the needs of students in the middle grades. Teachers work collaboratively with their peers to develop and deliver effective lessons that differentiate instruction to a diverse group of learners. The middle school at St. David's follows a Humanities track in which English and History teachers collaborate to create an interdisciplinary learning experience through the study of literature and history. The history track currently progresses as follows: Global History 5 > Global History 6 > Bible Survey 7 > Humanities 8: The American Experience.

Candidates must meet the following requirements:

- Hold a bachelor's degree in education or a related field
- Have experience working with middle-school aged children
- Demonstrate alignment with the mission, vision, and values of St. David's School

Ideal candidates will:

- Possess a master's degree in an appropriate/relevant field.
- Have at least 3-5 years of prior teaching experience
- Demonstrate exemplary interpersonal skills & excellent work ethic
- Display a passion for early adolescents as well as a desire to collaborate with other educators and parents to meet their unique needs
-

Salary and benefits are competitive, classes are small and the work environment is collegial.

Interested candidates are encouraged to visit the St. David's School website at www.stdavidsraleigh.org to learn more about the mission and vision of the school and to apply for the position on our Employment page.